Mayor Burtcher declared a quorum with five (5) Councilmembers in attendance.

Ordinance No. 3226 – Restriction of Off-Street Parking. Ordinance No. 3226 is amending Article 5, Section 10-7 of Ordinance No. 2422 of the Guthrie Code of Ordinances providing for restrictions for off-street parking within the Guthrie City limits. This ordinance has been discussed for several months after the City of Guthrie had been approached by concerned residents and neighborhoods regarding vehicles being parked in the yards. Many feel that this issue presents an aesthetic problem and leads to neighborhood decline. Within the ordinance, it is the intent of the proposed requirements that adequate parking and loading facilities be provided off the street easement for each use of land within the City of Guthrie. Requirements are intended to be based on the demand created by each use. These requirements shall apply to all uses in all Districts. Provided, however, that on appeal, the Board of Adjustment may grant exceptions to the off-street parking requirements set forth in Article 5, Section 10, when it is determined that the size and shape of a lot or lots is such that off-street parking requirements cannot be complied with and that the proposed use will not create undue traffic congestion in the adjacent streets. Off-street parking or loading space shall be a part of the required open space associated with the permitted use and shall not be reduced or encroached upon in any manner. The area required for off-street parking shall be in addition to the yard areas herein required; except that the front yard required in a C-1 Neighborhood Shopping District or an I-1 Restricted Manufacturing and Wholesale District may be used for uncovered parking area; and further provided that the front yard required in a Residential District may be used for the uncovered parking area for six (6) or less vehicles associated with a residential use when the area is surfaced with a sealed surface pavement adequate to prevent the occurrence of mud and dust with continued use and may be used for uncovered parking area for more than six (6) vehicles in accordance with the provisions of Article 5, Subsection 10.8. The proposed Ordinance, in its current form, will be placed on April 17, 2012 City Council agenda for consideration.

Discussion of possible City acceptance of railroad right-of-way. The City of Guthrie was approached by a representative of Montoff, who is connected with Burlington Northern Santa Fe Railroad (BNSF), about obtaining the right-of-way for a portion of an abandoned railroad that is part of the Guthrie to Fairmont Line. The purpose of obtaining the right-of-way would be for public use such as trails. The length of the abandoned track bed is seven to eight miles running north along Cottonwood Creek from College Avenue to the Cimarron River. The City of Guthrie must follow the Federal Rail Banking Management requirement which under the National Trails System Act administers the carriers who wish to avoid complete abandonment of the line and preserve the rail corridor for future use. The first requirement is to form an agreement with the railroad owners which would allow for the banked rail line to be used as a trail until needed again. A Statement of Willingness to Assume Financial Responsibility must be submitted and the offer must start at some point of interconnects with BNSF. The City of Guthrie can request acquirement as a donation, but the third party (purchaser of the sale) is not obligated to donate. After further discussion, it was the consensus of the City Council to forward the information to the Guthrie Transportation Authority for further review.

Questions and discussion regarding agenda items.

YMCA Agreement. The proposed item is to consider approval of an agreement with the YMCA for management of the municipal swimming pool. This is a renewal of a partnership agreement with the YMCA that was first approved last year. The partnership would provide for the YMCA to again manage the Guthrie Municipal Swimming Pool. Just like last year, the City would provide the YMCA with a $5,000 administrative fee and the YMCA would also collect all of the revenue. This partnership will save the City an estimated $22,459 a year.

Honor Park Agreement. The proposed item is to consider approval of the Honor Park Agreement with the American Legion as recommended by the Guthrie Park Board. This is a renewal agreement that has been in place for several years for the maintenance and operation of Honor Park. The Guthrie Park Board met at their regularly scheduled meeting and approved the agreement with the American Legion for the lease of Honor Park. There were no changes from the existing agreement.

Information Technology Agreement. The proposed item is to consider approval of agreement with the City of Edmond for Information Technology Support. This agreement would create a regional partnership between the City of Guthrie and the City of Edmond for the management of the City of Guthrie's information technology system. This innovative partnership would allow the City of Guthrie to enjoy the benefits and knowledge of one of the state's largest and most proficient IT teams at a fraction of the cost. Staff feels that this option is much better than hiring an employee because we would get the specialized skills of an entire department rather than one person. The savings over hiring an employee is also a significant factor. If approved, we will be getting a higher level of service for approximately $55,000 to $60,000 less than the total cost of an employee that was hired at market rate. The agreement provides the City of Guthrie a set number of hours and on-site time for a fixed rate of $1,150 per month for help desk and general support. The agreement further provides a rate schedule for specialized services so that special projects may be planned and budgeted accordingly. The agreement was crafted this way to ensure that our daily needs were met with help desk functions but to also ensure that we could control costs on out of the ordinary or special projects.

City Council Strategic Plan. The proposed item is to consider approval of the updated City Council strategic plan. A retreat was held on January 28, 2012 for the City Council to establish its goals and objectives over the next few years. Once language has been approved, the plan will be developed into a document that can be easily shared with the public. Staff has also met with a facilitator to develop internal strategies for accomplishing the objectives set forth in the Council plan.

Councilmember Mueller present at 6:50 p.m.

Ordinance No. 3230. The proposed item is to consider approval to amend Zoning Ordinance No. 2422 by creating the Special Use provision for "Residential Drug and Alcohol Rehabilitation Treatment Center" in a Commercial Zoning District, by Special Use Permit only. This change would not grant any entity permission to put this type of facility in place, but it would create the opportunity to do so. A Special Use Category allows that type of use to be permitted only after the request has been reviewed by the Planning Commission and approved by the Guthrie City Council. This item was on the March 20, 2012 City Council's agenda at which time the City Council tabled until April 3, 2012.

Request for future items of discussion. None.

Adjournment. There being no further business for the Guthrie City Council, Mayor Burtcher declared the meeting adjourned at 6:55 p.m.

This agreement would create a regional partnership between the City of Guthrie and the City of Edmond for the management of the City of Guthrie's information technology system. This innovative partnership would allow the City of Guthrie to enjoy the benefits and knowledge of one of the state's largest and most proficient IT teams at a fraction of the cost. Mayor Burtcher declared the motion carried unanimously.

Public hearing and consider approval of Ordinance No. 3230 to amend Zoning Ordinance No. 2422 by creating the Special Use provision for "Residential Drug and Alcohol Rehabilitation Treatment Center" in a Commercial Zoning District, by Special Use Permit only. This item was on the March 20, 2012 City Council's agenda at which time the City Council tabled until April 3, 2012. Currently, there is no Residential Rehabilitation Center Special Use Category within a Commercial Zoning District. To proceed with the process, the "Rehabilitation Center" category must be established as an allowed Special Use within a Commercial Zoning District. A Special Use Category allows that type of use to be permitted only after the request has been reviewed and approved by the Planning Commission and ultimately by the Guthrie City Council. This change would not grant any entity permission to put this type of facility in place, but it would create the opportunity to do so. The Planning Commission recommended the City Council deny the request to establish a Special Use Category for a "Residential Drug and Alcohol Rehabilitation Treatment Center" use. A public hearing was held for the purpose of soliciting public comment(s) regarding amending Zoning Ordinance No. 2422 by creating a Special Use provision for "Residential Drug and Alcohol Rehabilitation Treatment Center" in a Commercial Zoning District. Public comments consisted of two (2) individuals in favor of Ordinance No. 3230. Motion by Councilmember Wood, seconded by Councilmember Mueller, moved approval to table Ordinance No. 3230. Councilmembers entered their votes and the votes were displayed with the following results:

Aye: Burtcher, Thomas, Coffin, Hazlewood, Wood, Mueller
Nay: None

Mayor Burtcher declared the motion carried unanimously.

Consider approval to amend Council's action on November 1, 2011 that authorized staff to lease/purchase a 2012 Ford F-250 Crew Cab, 4x4, with aluminum camper shell and accessories to authorizing staff to utilize the Board of Logan County Commissioners Bid No. 2012-FD-2 awarded to Vance Country Ford for the purchase of this vehicle using City funds in the amount of $33,711 and Logan County Fire Sales Tax in the amount of $9,584 for a total purchase price of $43,295.

Summary
On November 1, 2011, City Council approved staff to lease/purchase a new Battalion Chief's ¾ ton pickup using Logan County Fire Sales Tax funds. To avoid paying interest on a lease/purchase, we are proposing to use the remaining funds from the sale of Fire Engine No. 7 to Coyle Fire Department in the amount of $33,711 to put towards the cost of the new Battalion Chief's pickup, leaving a balance of $9,584 to be paid from the Logan County Fire Sales Tax fund. The Board of Logan County Commissioners has complied with the bidding process and has provided the City with copies of the documents including the advertisement and bid tab sheet – see attached. Bids were received from two (2) vendors in response to the Invitation to Bid. The bid opening was October 31, 2011 with the bid tabulation results as follows:

Anthony Saggione Sirchie Acquisition Company - $67,975
Vance Country Ford - $43,295

Staff recommends awarding to Vance Country Ford, the low bidder, in the amount of $43,295.

This grant from the Oklahoma Humanities Council is available to public libraries in Oklahoma to present a reading and discussion program. Through the grant, the Oklahoma Humanities Council will provide multiple copies of the books for participants to borrow and will pay a stipend to each of the five scholars who are scheduled to lead the book discussions. The theme chosen for this series is "Journey Stories," which will run one Monday per month from August through December.

The Library must match the LTAIO grant of up to $1000 with the same value of in-kind services. Examples of such services include staff time spent on the project, value of the meeting room being use, supplies, postage, and publicity.

Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance — by Robert M. Pirsig

In Travels with Charley, Steinbeck says, "I am in love with Montana." In Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance, Montana is the immediate destination of Pirsig, his son, and their friends John and Sylvia, but "plans are deliberately indefinite, more to travel than to arrive anywhere." They are travelling by motorcycle, choosing back roads and eschewing the Interstates, extolling the immediacy of their experience as compared to travelling by car. In addition to the physical journey that covers seventeen days from the Twin Cities to San Francisco, Pirsig takes the reader on an intellectual journey that he describes as a Chautauqua—the "Inquiry into Values" which is the book's subtitle—while Pirsig himself undergoes a spiritual journey. Although Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance is generally shelved with books on philosophy, several early reviewers described it as a novel, and the book has been compared to both Moby Dick and On the Road. And though Pirsig never cites the Odyssey, his Chautauqua takes him back to the ancient Greeks in his search for the roots of the irreconcilable dualities that he sees as characteristic of Western thought.

The Life of Pi — by Yann Martel

Yann Martel's The Life of Pi won the prestigious Man Booker Prize for fiction in 2002. The book begins at the end of the story, and its protagonist Piscine Molitor Patel, like Odysseus, is the narrator of his own story. Pi (as he renames himself after the Greek letter in order to avoid being teased) is an Odysseus-like character in many ways. Both Pi and Odysseus experience shipwrecks, build rafts, encounter cannibals, and visit magical but dangerous islands. However, although Odysseus is kept from home for ten years, his time at sea is relatively brief, while Pi spends 227 days in a lifeboat. Like Odysseus, Pi must rely on his ingenuity to survive the dangers of being adrift on the Pacific Ocean with a Bengal tiger, ironically named Richard Parker.

Presented as if it were a true story, only the frame of the "Author's Note" that begins the novel reflects Martel's actual experience. He did visit India in 1999 with the idea of completing a third novel, he did study philosophy in college, and his concluding statement is the core of his belief as a writer: "If we, citizens, do not support our artists, then we sacrifice our imagination on the altar of crude reality and we end up believing in nothing and have worthless dreams." Martel's novel is very much about the relationship of reality and story. The novel also contains a defense of zoos and explores humankind's relationship with animals.

JOURNEY Stories

JOURNEY Stories

Journeys and stories about them have gone together since people first got the idea of telling stories. In western literary tradition, the grandfather of all journey stories is the Odyssey, so we begin this reading and discussion series with Homer's epic poem. Even those who have never read the Odyssey are familiar with some of its contents. The poem is so much a part of our culture that its very title is now an English word meaning a difficult adventure-filled journey. We know that the Cyclops is a one-eyed giant blinded by Odysseus, that we should close our ears to the song of the sirens (unless they are attached to emergency vehicles), and that navigating between Scylla and Charybdis is to be between a rock and a hard place. Reading and discussing the Odyssey leads us to the idea that a journey is also a metaphor for human life.

Although Odysseus' journey was harrowing, we are enthralled by his adventures. Americans in particular have been lured by the siren song of the open road, and many of us have deliberately set out on a journey in search of adventure rather than a destination. On the Road, Travels with Charley, and Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance all describe journeys of this kind. With the final reading for this series, The Life of Pi, we return again to the realm of myth and fantasy, although the onset of the journey—from India to a new home in Canada—is presented in realistic terms as a true story.

The Odyssey — by Homer

When first written down, around 700 B.C., whether by the author himself or by a scribe to whom he recited the poem, the Odyssey was recorded on papyrus scrolls—perhaps twenty-four of them, one for each book—as the poem is too long to have survived intact on a single scroll. The Odyssey as we know it represents a culmination of an oral tradition and contains within it echoes of that tradition in its epithets and repeated passages—mnemonic devices to help the bard or reciter and to remind the audience of which narrative they are hearing. The poem is a nostos—the root of our word "nostalgia"—one of many tales of the homecomings of heroes of the Trojan War and the only one still existent in its entirety.

After ten years of war, this particular hero Odysseus, because he has offended the sea-god Poseidon, is delayed from his homecoming for another ten years. The structure of the narrative is intriguingly complex, beginning with Odysseus near the end of his journey and including his son Telemachus's journey in search of news of his father. Odysseus himself is the narrator of most of his journey, telling his tale to his hosts, the Phaeacians, before they assist him on his final voyage back to Ithaca.

On the Road — by Jack Kerouac

The most famous manuscript of On the Road was, like a modern version of the Odyssey, typed on long pages taped together to create a scroll. The novel's material came from Kerouac's travel journals of various trips across the United States and to Mexico, and its characters are his real friends and acquaintances given fictional names. Kerouac himself compared his work to James Joyce's Ulysses and expected it to be treated as seriously. The novel is filled with Whitmanian exuberance for the experiences of the road and, as with Walt Whitman, for Kerouac the journey is more important than any destination, although—like Odysseus—Sal Paradise ultimately comes home.

The seeming aimlessness of Sal and his friends came to symbolize for reviewers and readers the anti-establishment free-spirited Beat generation, but Kerouac is describing characters who are "beat" in the sense of being tired, seeking something they can only define as "IT," and being stalked by death.

Travels with Charley: In Search of America — by John Steinbeck

Steinbeck begins his memoir-travelogue, published in 1962, with this definition of a journey:

> A journey is a person in itself; no two are alike. And all plans, safeguards, policing, and coercion are fruitless. We find after years of struggle that we do not take a trip; a trip takes us.

Yet the trip on which Steinbeck embarks is carefully planned, including the design of a vehicle in which to make it: "a three-quarter-ton pick-up truck" with a fully equipped camper attached to its bed, which Steinbeck dubs "Rocinante" after Don Quixote's horse. His only companion on the trip is his standard French poodle Charley, who proves to be a good conversation starter for strangers encountered on the road.

A little more than a decade after Kerouac made the journeys that were the source of On the Road in 1960 Steinbeck sets out with a similar motive: "to rediscover this monster land" and to discover what real Americans are thinking. What he encounters is often dismaying—the ubiquity of trash that symbolizes for Steinbeck our wastefulness or the racism he encounters in New Orleans. He is also amazed by the offerings of vending machines at truck stops and fascinated by mobile home parks.

The "Journey Stories" theme was developed by Jennifer Kidney, Director of Literature Programs for the Oklahoma Humanities Council

Consideration approval of a Revocable Permit for a fence in the City Right-of-Way located at 803 N. Wentz.

Summary
The applicants have partially constructed a chain link fence on the east side of their property located at 803 N. Wentz. The property is a corner lot; there is a sidewalk on the east side of the property but not on the south side of the property. The fence on the south side of the property would extend over the City right-of-way by seven feet, and the fence on the east side of the property is located within the owner's lot line.

The owners indicated they have experienced people cutting across their yard at a diagonal and on multiple occasions have had statuary and seasonal décor stolen from their yard. The applicants wish to install a chain link style fence to reduce those actions. (Neighbors located three doors north of them at 813 N. Wentz already have a fully installed chain link fence in their yard - which is completely located within the lot lines.)

The applicants intend to install the fence with an easily removable base on the south side, should the City need access to the full right-of-way. According to the GIS, there are no City utilities within that right-of-way.

Agenda Item
Public Hearing and consider approval of Ordinance No. 3230 to amend Zoning Ordinance #2422 by creating a Special Use provision for "Residential Drug and Alcohol Rehabilitation Treatment Center" in a Commercial Zoning District, by Special Use Permit only.

Summary
On March 8, 2012 the Guthrie Planning Commission heard a request to approve an application for a Residential Drug and Alcohol Rehabilitation Treatment Center at 2423 W. Noble Avenue, (the former Living Waters Church facility). Such request requires a Special Use category as one of the allowable uses in a Commercial Zoning District. Currently, there is no Residential Rehabilitation Center Special Use Category. To proceed with the process, the "Rehabilitation Center" category must be established as an allowed Special Use within a Commercial Zoning District.

A Special Use Category allows that type of use to be permitted only after the request has been reviewed and approved by the Planning Commission, and ultimately by the Guthrie City Council.

Letters were mailed to 11 neighbors in the surrounding neighborhood regarding the request, and a notice was placed in the Guthrie NewsLeader on February 11th. There was one letter of comment received, which requested denial of the application.

The Planning Commission heard the request on March 8 and held a discussion regarding the application. The Planning Commission recommends the City Council deny the request to establish a Special Use Category for a "Residential Drug and Alcohol Rehabilitation Treatment Center" use.

Subsequently, the City Council heard the request at the March 20, 2012 meeting. One citizen spoke in opposition and the representative from Teen Challenge presented information regarding the project. The motion was continued for two weeks until April 3, 2012. At the April 3rd Council meeting the representative from Teen Challenge again spoke, and the matter was continued until the April 17th City Council meeting.

Consider approval of Resolution No. 2012-04 to temporarily amend the fees for the Guthrie Board of Adjustment for variance applications to Ordinance No. 3226, Off-Street Parking.

Summary
On the Guthrie City Council agenda for April 17, 2012 the Council will hear a motion to adopt Ordinance 3226, Off-Street Parking. That new Ordinance amends Zoning Ordinance 2422. The deliberations of that Ordinance have identified that there potentially could be a number of citizens who may request a variance to that Ordinance through the Board of Adjustment. Should that Ordinance be adopted, City Council members have indicated in workshops that a temporary reduction in Board of Adjustment fee should be enacted.

Resolution 2012-04 provides for a reduced fee of $25.00 for a Board of Adjustment hearing on the matter of Off-Street Parking. The reduced fee will be in effect until June 1, 2013.

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GUTHRIE TEMPORARILY AMENDING FEES, CHARGES AND POLICIES FOR THE GUTHRIE BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT.
